Keynote Presenter

Rev. Dr. Genetta Y. Hatcher is affectionately called the "Preacher in Blue Jeans". She has been privileged to serve in numerous leadership positions during her tenure at AT&T mainly in the areas of Training, Coaching and Development. Most recently, she served as Seminary Pastor and Vice President of Operations at Ecumenical Theological Seminary (ETS) in Detroit. She is a member of the Council of Baptists Pastors of Detroit and Vicinity where she serves as the co-chair of the economic justice committee. She also serves as the Board Vice-Chair for WomenPreach, Inc. and is a member of DWIHN's Human Service Community Collaborative. She holds a BA from Spring Arbor University with a focus on Management and Organizational Development and both a Master of Divinity and a Doctor of Ministry degree from Ecumenical Theological Seminary.
